17.7 Any violation of an obligation contained in this Clause 17 is a material breach of the Contract and entitles the non-breaching Party to terminate the Contract with immediate effect and without prejudice to any further rights or remedies available thereunder or at law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Contract, Supplier shall, without any limitations, indemnify and hold harmless Customer (and any affected Customer Affiliate) for all liabilities, damages, cost or expenses incurred as a result of any such violation or termination of the Contract, or arising from export restrictions concealed by Supplier.

18.4 Waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. A failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

18.5 Rights and remedies. The rights and remedies provided under the Contract are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies provided by law or otherwise available to the Parties, except as expressly provided otherwise herein.

18.6 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted and the Contract will be given effect as if such provision or part-provision had been replaced by a term with a similar economic effect. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of this Contract.

18.7 Entire agreement. The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and replaces any prior agreement between them in relation to its subject matter.

18.8 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the Parties, constitute any Party the agent of another Party, or authorise any Party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other Party.

18.9 Third party rights.

18.9.1 Supplier agrees that the Services, Software, Hardware and Work Products, as applicable, may be used and received by each member of the Customer Group subject to the terms of the Contract. The Parties specifically acknowledge and agree that it is their intention that each member of the Customer Group shall be entitled: (i) to the benefits of the Contract as if it were party to it; and (ii) to use any of the Services, Software, Hardware and Work Products, as applicable; provided that any Customer obligations set out in the Contract are obligations of Customer, not of any other member of the Customer Group. Customer and the Supplier do not require the consent of any third party to rescind the Contract or to vary it in any way.

18.9.2 The Parties acknowledge and agree that: (i) except as specifically provided in the Contract, no one other than a Party to the Contract, their successors and permitted assignees, shall have any right to enforce any of its terms; and (ii) any liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses incurred by any other members of the Customer Group under or in connection with the Contract shall be deemed to have been suffered by Customer (and shall be recoverable by Customer from Supplier in accordance with the terms of the Contract as if they had been suffered by Customer) and (iii) Clause 18.9.2 (i) shall not apply where it would prevent the applicable member of the Customer Group from recovering any relevant liabilities, losses, damages, costs or expenses, in which case the applicable member of the Customer Group may enforce the benefits conferred on it under the Contract.

18.9.3 Should a member of the Customer Group cease to have such status due to a divestiture, such entity shall be deemed a member of the Customer Group for purposes of using and receiving Services, Software, Hardware and Work Products, as applicable, for a transition period of six (6) months or such other period agreed by the Parties.

18.10 Notices. Any notice must be given duly signed and delivered by hand, registered mail, courier, or (provided that the Parties have agreed that notices may be sent by email) by e-mail to the address of the relevant Party as stated in the Contract or to such other address as such Party may have notified in writing. E-mails require written confirmation of the receiving Party. Supplier's reply, correspondence, information or documentation related to the Contract must be provided in the language used in the Contract. This Clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or any documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution.

18.11 Further Assurance. Supplier will at its own cost execute all such documents and do all such acts and things; and procure that all relevant third parties execute all such documents and do all such acts and things, as the Customer may reasonably request from time to time in order to give full effect to the provisions of this Contract (including the rights given under it).

18.12 Governing law. The Contract and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country (and/or the state, as applicable) where Customer is registered, however under exclusion of its conflict of law rules and the United Nations Convention on International Sale of Goods.

18.13 Jurisdiction. If Customer and Supplier are registered in the same country, any dispute arising in connection with the Contract which cannot be settled amicably shall be submitted for resolution to the jurisdiction of the competent courts at Customer's place of registration. If Customer and Supplier are registered in different countries, any dispute arising in connection with the Contract which cannot be settled amicably shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one arbitrator appointed in accordance therewith.
